

Social Studies Standards Second Draft Public Comment Open through August 16

The second draft of the Minnesota K-12 Academic Standards is available for public comment beginning today, Friday, July 30, 2021. A questions and answers document is also available, which provides information about the standards review and revision process, and updates in the second draft.

Minnesotans can use the public comment survey to provide feedback on the second draft. The survey allows you to provide comments on individual standards and benchmarks, and/or on the draft as a whole. If you are unable to use the survey, you can send your comments via email or postal mail.
